wine we love

tin pot hut sauvignon blanc marlborough 2017 $56

decanter magazine awarded this little gem 98 points in their recent tasting. we pulled it out of our own blind tasting thinking this is a really classy wine with great texture at an amazing price.

greystone pinot gris waipara 2017 glass—$11 bottle—$55 best bang for your buck. the nose is rich and concentrated with well-packed aromas of white and yellow stonefruits and a suggestion of spice. the finish is dry and the flavours are long and luscious on the palate.

obsidian estate rose waiheke island 2017 $72

the palate is lively and bright with intense aromas of strawberries and hints of spice. predominantly tempranillo with a lively and fresh palate, juicy acidity and well balanced sweetness. enjoy on the terrace with friends.

terra sancta “mysterious diggings” pinot noir bannockburn central otago 2016 $62 seriously good value from the bannockburn sub-region of central otago. beautifully perfumed with a red cherry like richness and a deep but soft texture. this wine lets the vineyard do the talking.

nanny goat vineyard pinot noir central otago 2016 $81

for the second vintage in a row our tasting panel have pulled this wine out as one of the best pinot noirs so we thought we should give it a chance. we hope you do to. it is just delicious and nearly too good to share.

elephant hill “le phant” rouge merlot syrah cabernet hawkes bay 2015 $68

a beautiful complimentary blend of merlot, syrah and cabernet sauvignon. rich and weighty with lifted exotic aromas and dark chocolate decadence. absolutely a staff favourite.
