wine we love

cappella sant'andrea clara stella vernaccia di san gimignano docg 2019 glass—$16 bottle—$80

arguably tuscanys greatest and oldest white wine, this fresh beauty has notes of apple, pear, lemon, and almond; its crisp acidity pairs beautifully with seafood, pasta, and cheeses, and michelangelo said it "kisses, licks, bites, pinches and stings"

louis bouillot grande reserve sparkling nuits-st-georges n/v glass—$17 bottle—$85 hailing from burgundy, france this multi award-winning bubbles is as close as you'll get to champers without the price tag; made from the classic combination of pinot noir and chardonnay this elegant wine goes with almost everything abbots & delaunay corbieres, languedoc 2019 glass—$14 bottle—$70 from the languedoc region of southern france this deep, dark grenache syrah delivers in flavour and texture; think floral violets, think white pepper spice, think dark jammy fruits, and soft tannins; think....delicious urlar pinot gris gladstone 2019 glass—$12 bottle—$59

biogro certified, stonefruit, pear and spice, wrapped in luscious ginger and honey, tangelo skin for texture and a refreshing finish; fabulous with food but equally delightful on its own martinborough vineyard 'te tera' pinot noir martinborough 2020 glass—$17 bottle—$85 martinborough estate was the first vineyard to plant pinot in the region and it shows; intense red cherry, cranberry, and strawberry flavours with roasted chestnut and vanilla oak; ripe, savoury, bright; beautiful example of pinot noir vasasour awatere valley sauvignon blanc marlborough 2020 glass—$14 bottle—$69

this wine ticks all the right boxes; fresh herbs, passionfruit, citrus peel with an "oyster shell" minerality; match with soul's salt & pepper squid - two crowd favourites!

paritua 'red' merlot cabernet sauvignon, cabernet franc hawke's bay 2018 glass—$18 bottle—$89

deep ruby red, black doris plum, cocoa, black olive, vanilla and spice, concentrated cassis and blackberry; complex, elegant and powerful - this is michelle obama in a wineglass!
